

MEXICANS ARE NOW OUT IN FRONT; DEFEAT THE PURITYS IN FAST GAME

Gomez Tribe Noses Out the Bakers in the Best Game of the Commercial Bill; Soldiers Hit Stride and Give the Krackajacks a Wallop; Jim Wilson and Paul Fisher Both Pitch Great Ball.

JUAN GOMEZ and his Mexican ball players have tightened their grip on first place in the Commercial league pennant race. In one of the most sensational games of the season, the Mexicans defeated the Puritys in the second game of the double header on Sunday afternoon at Rio Grande park, the score being 3 to 2. "Shorty" Weiss and "Curly" Villard, the opposing pitchers, were both in good form. The Puritys' southpaw allowed the Mexicans only six hits, but they made the hits count. Villard was hit four times for safe counts. In the third, Aylsworth tripled and Weiss came along with a home run, accounting for the two scores of the bakers. The bakers piled up their usual number of errors, but the fielding, on the whole, was pretty fair.

The seventh infantry team furnished the surprise of the afternoon. In the first game, the soldiers decisively defeated the fast-going Krackajacks and hammered the pot offerings of Joe Lucas all over the lot for a victory by a score of 7 to 2. Duncan, the new army flinger, was in fine form. He allowed but five hits and fanned 12 batters.

The morning was rather disappointing. Despite the wonderful pitching by Jim Wilson, the Feldmans went down to defeat before Everybody's, 4 to 1. Wilson allowed only one hit, while Paul Fisher, also "going great guns," was located for but three safe swats. It was simply a case of the photographers tossing the game away through errors.

FELDMANS DROP ONE-HIT CONTEST BY "BECK"

Though the Everybody's got only one hit in the morning game, they gathered a victory by a score of 4 to 1. The Feldmans appear unable to win unless the game be handed them in a silver platter, and silver platters are mighty scarce at baseball parks. Manager Howard Rix showed very bad judgment in putting pitcher Edwards on the mound against the crack Everybody's. Edwards had nothing on the ball but his hand and pleasant smile. The clerks didn't get a hit off him in the one inning he worked but he gave them everything in his repertoire except hits. The infield also gave a poor exhibition. After the clerks had gathered two runs off Edwards, Rix pulled him out and big Jim Wilson started the second inning. Jim had everything, Sunday, and in the five innings he pitched, the clerks got just one hit. The fact that they gathered two runs was due to miserable fielding.

Fisher in Good Form.
Paul Fisher was pitched almost as well as Wilson. Wilson worked five innings for nine strikeouts and two passes while Fisher pitched 10 in seven innings, leading in three passes. The only score off Fisher was in the sixth inning when, with two gone, Snelling pelted him with a home run. There were only two other hits off Fisher. Snelling is evidently some slinger but he didn't stay in the field. He was at second on Sunday. He had five chances and muffed three of them. Failure to cover his position was also the reason of Jim Wilson being charged with an error when he heaved the ball at second base and there was no one there to take it. Ostrander's work at short was also disappointing.

Moelke Behind Bat.
Moelke was behind the bat and the ex-soldier caught a nice game, but Rix's desire to "experiment" is not going to put his team in the pennant race. There has been altogether too much shifting of positions in this team and the players have not been able to develop any team play.

Tatum's running catch of Fisher's long fly in the fifth inning was the feature of the fielding. The box score follows:

First inning, when, after Carpio had struck out on three pitched balls, Caro slammed a hot one to shortstop, who threw wild to first. Minjares slammed the ball to Aylsworth at the midway position, who heaved Caro out at the plate. Minjares stole second and went to third on Carpio's hit. Fillemant booted an easy grounder of Medina's, allowing Minjares to score. Chacon struck out for the third one of the inning. This was a striking illustration of the support accorded Mr. Weiss.
